- Real-World AI Applications

ABOUT CONFERENCE

Welcome to the Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning & Data Science Conference, organized by Innovatex Conferences and scheduled for 12–14 October 2026 in Berlin, Germany. Guided by the theme “AI, Machine Learning & Data Science: Driving the Next Wave of Digital Transformation,” this event brings together global experts, researchers, and industry leaders to share insights and explore emerging innovations. The conference offers nearly thirty focused scientific sessions covering the latest developments in AI, ML, deep learning, automation, and data-driven technologies. Participants will engage in keynote lectures, interactive presentations, and dedicated poster sessions showcasing promising young researchers. Set in the vibrant tech hub of Berlin, the event provides an excellent platform for learning, networking, and discovering the advancements transforming the future of intelligent systems.
